- (b) the other party's financial position deteriorates to such an extent that in the terminating party's reasonable opinion the other party's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Agreement has been placed in jeopardy.

9.3 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, bMC may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Client if:

If the Client fails to do so, then bMC may enter the Client's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned, the Client shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them; and
- (c) Where a fixed sum has been agreed for the provision of the Services, the full amount or amounts of all such fixed sums, whether payable in stages, on completion or, without limitation, in any other manner will become immediately due and payable by the Client to bMC, regardless of whether the relevant stage or completion has been achieved.

10.2 Termination of the Agreement shall not affect any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Agreement which existed at or before the date of termination.

10.3 Any provision of the Agreement that expressly or by implication is intended to come into or continue in force on or after termination of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

12. Time Limitation

Any right the Client may have to bring a claim against bMC, whether that right falls in Agreement or tort, shall expire 6 months after the occurrence of the incident subject to the claim.
